

Thursday, July 2nd, 2015

10:45 – 11:00 Welcome (Dr. M Kurtis)

11:00 - 13:00: Up to date on Parkinson's Disease pathogenesis and diagnosis

- 11:00- 11:40 – Time to redefine Parkinson's disease. Pathogenesis (Dr. R Luquin)
- 12:20-13:00 –What we have learned about PD from non motor symptoms – (Dr. P Barone)
- 1:40-12:20 – Time to redefine PD subtypes (Dr. R Chaudhuri)

13:00 – 14:00 – Lunch

14:00 - 16:00: Managing PD: from beginning to end

- 14:00 – 14:40 Early Stage management (Dr. J Pagonabarraga) -
- 14:40 – 15:20 Advanced stage management (Dr. A. Antonini)
- 15:20 – 16:00 The benefits of exercise and dieting in PD: what does the evidence say (Dr. BR Bas Bloem)

16:00 – 16:30 – Coffee

16:30 - 18:00: Clinical cases (videos, voting)

- 16:30 – 17:00 (Dr. J Infante)
- 17:00 – 17:30 (Dr. C. Falup)
- 18:30 – 18:00 (Dr. Kurtis)

18:00 – 18:05 – Close

Friday, July 3rd, 2015

9:00 -11:00: What if the patient does not improve? Possible Pitfalls

- 9:00- 9:40: Differential diagnosis of PD: clinical pearls and the role of ancillary tests – (Dr. A. Lees)
- 9:40 – 10:20 The cognitive and psychiatric faces of PD: clinical management – (Dr. C Buhmann)
- 10:20 – 11:00 Gastroparesis and other GI problems: clinical management (Dr. F Stocchi)

11:00 – 11:30 – Coffee

11:30 -13:00: Empowering the patient

- 11:30 – 12:00 Patient reported outcomes. Treating the most important symptoms for the patient (Dr. P Martinez-Martin)
- 12:00 – 13:00 The role of universities, companies and patient groups in PD (round table discussion).
 - Pharmaindustry representative
 - UIMP's representative.
 - European Parkinson Disease Association representative

13:00 – Close